

Substitute teachers needed for Eagle Hill Southport School, an independent day school in Southport, CT. Eagle Hill Southport School is a school designed for bright, capable students ages 6-14 experiencing academic difficulties because of a learning difference, like dyslexia or ADHD. This position is an “on-call” position, 8:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 8:00 a.m.–12:30 p.m. on Fridays. Individuals are paid at a per-diem rate. Applicants must minimally have graduated from a four-year college and have had prior classroom experience or other related work with children. Candidates interested in substitute teaching should email a resume and letter of intent to:
kgallagher@eaglehillssouthport.org